

Name:

Which AP Open-ended question did you select? _____

- What book did you read? (Title and Author) _____
- If you are writing your research paper and using a direct quote from a sentence on page 114 of your book, what would the parenthetical citation that you must use look like? _____
- You want to provide supporting evidence from your novel to prove your point. How would you introduce an indirect quote in your research paper? (There are several ways!) _____

What would you select in NoodleTools to begin the citation for this article? Circle your best option:

Anthology/Book Collection

The following components are necessary for a correct citation. If you were using NoodleTools, you would be filling in boxes; for Station 3, put the information in the correct order below. Hint: "Rpt. in" stands for Reprinted In

Vol. ____ . ____ : ____ , ____ . ____ . Print.
Volume # City of Publication Publisher of Current Source Date of Pub. Page #s

Station 4 – Make a Match

Prompt # Abstract Letter

- | | |
|---|-------|
| 1 | _____ |
| 2 | _____ |
| 3 | _____ |
| 4 | _____ |
| 5 | _____ |
| 6 | _____ |
| 7 | _____ |
| 8 | _____ |
| 9 | _____ |

Station 5 – Can You Count Citations

Number of pages in...

_____ Nineteenth-Century Literature Criticism (NCLC)

_____ Poetry Criticism (PC)

_____ Poetry for Students

_____ Literary Lifelines

=====

_____ Total Number of pages

Station 6 – Beginning Your Search

Did you explore all three online sources?

Which online source seems the most helpful?

Write down directions and/or passwords in order to access these sources in the future.